8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 89 70 70 71 74 80

THE WEATHER

Mail Clerk's Slayer

MISS LENA CLARKE

Former Postmistress at West Palm Beach, Fla., who has confessed that she killed F. W. Militimore, also a postal employe. In a signed statement, issued yesterday, Miss Clarke says she stole to protect her

Leaves Note Signed 'Suffering Pete.'

Widow Quits Jersey Estate Quickly

LAYS SUICIDE ATTEMPT

couldn't live without her last words. I'love you, and only you.

yesterday, taking considerable lugage, and evidently prepared for been separated, died last Monday in Bennington, Vt. nsurance man, from whom she

AUTO TAG FREES MAN

Prisoner Still Has to Explain Possession of "Wet Goods"

August Hampton, 237 South Sixtleth street, arrested, the police say, with 200 bottles of "wet goods" in his possession, tag. Hampton, who was arrested yes-terday near Market street ferry, bad

a further hearing on a Federal charge

The tag was not displayed on the car.

but Hampton produced it at the hear-ing. He stated that he had borrowed the car to meet a man in Atlantic City

"ZION CITY FOR ZIONISTS"

Voliva Defies Men Who Burned His

Bulletin Boards

Zion, Ill., Aug. 8.—(By A. P.)— Wilbur Glenn Voliva, head of the Zionist organization established here, has defied those who burned large sign-boards calling attention to the fact that started today on "three-story bulletin whereon entire sermons could and he asserted that work was to after he against him.

beards'

regarded as leader of the Fifteenth been previously held in $1000 bail by Ward.

Magistrate Carson today discharged had produced an auto license

MAYOR ORDERS POLICE SHAKE-UP: WARNS PENROSE

Grob, Shore Cafe Man, Sentenced to Three Months in Pocomoke Rum Smuggling Case

TEMPEST IS MADE AIDE TO CORTELYOU: HORN TO 'CLEAN UP'

Senator Must Drop Combine Connection or "Mayor Will Go It Alone"

V-B-C WARDS UNDER FIRE; ELLIS AND NOPPEL SHIFTED

The most drastic police shake-up of his Administration was ordered at noon today by Mayor Moore, after a special meeting of his Cabinet.

The Mayor also declared open war on the combine, and said that if Senstor Penrose "stands for the contractor combine, the Mayor will go it alone." The changes ordered by the Mayor George S. Tempest., Assistant Super-latendent of Police, made acting Assist-ant Director of Public Safety. Colonel Thomas Biddle Ellis, Assist-ant Director of Public Safety, becomes Assistant Director of Public Welfare.

Noppel Is Shifted Edward A. Nonpel, Assistant Director Public Welfare, named Public Welfare, named Assistant hasing Agent, an office vacant since the death of James F. Herron.

Captain Joseph H. Van Horn, know as a "clean-up man," ordered to take command of the Second Police Division, replacing Captain William J. McFad-

I propose that the Administration shall detectives, which will be used to subteither be scoffed at or mocked. Those the police force and elsewhere who when one of the detectives went through delphia." he replied. "It is not likely you done? that the Senator will join the ashif hastily written. It read:

"The reason of this is a selfish nonounced. Gambling, vice and contracts hearted woman who believed when only cannot and shall not rule this town. The Mayor has said this often enough and he menns it.

"The Mayor is willing to go along with Senator Penrose as long as he sands for the things that are right. If he stands for the contractor combine, the Mayor will go it alone."

Ven Horn in Hall's Ward

As commander of the Second police division, Captain Van Horn will have tharge of the police in the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Four-Ninth. Wards Councilman Hall is Vare leader of the Sevence ward. The Eighth is the home rand of Senator Penrose, and is led by Edward C. (Buck) Devlin. The Tenth Ward leader is Thomas W. Cunning-Judge Brown, of the Municipal Court,

The Mayor summoned the heads of the city departments about 10:30 of having liquor in his possession. A Egg Harbor Bay, near Ocean City. preliminaries told them the action he had planned.

The Mayer was in a fighting mood and emphasized his statements by igorous thumps on his desk. the new Acting Assistant Director

Public Safety, remained with the Mayor and received his instructions.

Mr. Tempest immediately afterward went to the office he occupied as assistant superintendent of police and prelared to move into his new quarters joining the office of Director of Public Safety Cortelyou.

No "Orders" Except From Mayor "I owe my new position to nebody at Mayor Moore and I will take orders | Zion City was for the Zionists only. from no one but Mayor Moore and Director Cortelyou." Mr. Tempest said. police shake-up was regarded the Vare-Brown-Cunningham combine

Continued on Page Two. Column Three

ROB CONDUCTOR OF $38

Bandits on Chester Car Threaten to Shoot Victim

Three Negro passengers on a trolley car going to Chester neld up Harry Grubb, the conductor, as the car was passing Ninety-first street and Tinicum avenue at midnight. By threatening to shoot, they compelled him to hand over $38.54. The robbers worked so quietly the notorman did not know of the hold-up until after Grubb had been forced to open the rear door and the men escaped. Grubb lives at 2418 South Warner

See Fiction Page Today

You will find there the first intallment of a gripping novel by a Philadelphia man, George Gibbs. It tells the story of a Russian Grand Duké who comes to this country and makes good.

Incidentally, he has many thrilling adventures and wins a wife

Don't forget to read the romance of The Vagrant Duke

JACKSON ST. STORE Hairpins Newest Clue WRECKED BY BOMB IN BLACK-HAND PLOT

People Thrown From Beds in Blast That Destroys D. Sontheim's Shoe-Repairing Plant

HAD RECEIVED MANY

epairing shop of David Sontheim, 1408 Jackson street, at 1:30 o'clock this morning shook every house wihin a quare, threw people from their beds and shattered every window glass on

Fragments of a bomb were found scattered through the house and in the street. From he size of he pieces picked up, it apparently was about the size and shape of a large canteloupe. No one was in the house before the door of which the bomb was placed. The door was blown in, machinery in the shop was uprooted from its founda-tions and thrown against the wall. Southeim lives with his family above another store which he owns in the TO 'NO-HEARTED' WOMAN

People Thrown From Bed The force of the explosion was heavy that people were thrown from their beds. Residents of the neighbor-

New York, Aug. 8.—A search of the clothing of Peter Bender, insurance agent of New York, Chicago and Detroit, who is in the Dover, N. J., General Hospital recovering from a shot wound in his cheet, revealed yesterday a note, according to the Morris County and the store, from which clouds of dust and plaster from which clouds of dust and plaster only in flimsy night garments, over-which was thrown a shawl or an over-cost, had gathered around the store. from which clouds of dust and plaster were still rising.

Whispers of "Black Hand" the then were apparently verified this morning when one of the detectives went through a property of the went of the detectives went through when one of the detectives went through when one of the detectives went through a property of the sender was found late Friday night on the lawn of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Barber. at Succasuna, with a revolver beside him. Mrs. Barber, who was called out, denied knowing Bender, but according to George Hicks, a mechanic, who assisted in caring for the wounded man, she bent over Bender was found late Friday night on the law of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Barber. at Succasuna. With a revolver beside him. Mrs. Barber, who was called out, denied knowing Bender, but according to George Hicks, a mechanic, who assisted in caring for the wounded man, she bent over Bender was found late Friday night on the lawn of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Barber. at Succasuna. With a revolver beside him. Mrs. Barber, who was called out, denied knowing Bender, but according to George Hicks, a mechanic, who assisted in caring for the wounded man, she bent over Bender was found late Friday night on the lawn of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Barber. at Succasuna. When it is the lawn of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Hicks, a venture of the lawn of the Oaks, the estate of Mrs. George Hicks, a venture of the wounded when Sontheim said he lad been received and the lad head the man is the lawn of the lawn About a week ago a letter came which

The note was in ink, and blurred as vious threats would certainly be carried to execution. Too Frightened to Tell Police

"came across" this time the ure

Southeim said this morning he was ive without her. In every too much frightened by this last letter lied to me and cheated my to tell the police. He lived in daily fear of coming to his store in Jackson street Mrs. Barber left in her automobile and finding it in ruins.

The door was blown in, the window lug- wrecked and the stone steps nothing but a a mass of dust and small pieces of rock. Mrs. Barber's husband, an The interior of the store presented a man, from whom she had scene only equaled by the stores in a shelled city of France. Machinery blown against the wall, plaster strewing the floor and hanging in shreds from the ceiling and smaller furnishings of the place blown in every direction. Pieces of the bomb were found as far made for the game, police made the back in the house as the room leading prests on the technical charge of "comto the rear yard. All the frare of particularly heavy steel. All the fragments believe radicals planted the bomb. SAVES 8 FROM DROWNING

Richard Ledig, Philadelphian, Rescues Yachting Party

Richard Ledig, 4322 North Broad street, rescued four young men and four girls from drowning yesterday in Great Mr. Ledig was cruising with a party without a license had been lodged of friends in his yacht, the Anita, and during a sudden squall they saw a sailboat near them capsize and its passen-gers thrown into the water. Mr. Ledig quickly brought his boat alongside, and with the help of his friends got them safely on board. They were taken to his boathouse and dried out and sent home. Mr. Ledig said this morning he did not get the young people's names. The boxs are said to be members of a

Mr. Ledig is president of the Macky Company here.

University of Pennsylvania fraternity

HARDING OFF HENLOPEN Mayflower is Nearing Washington

With Returning Vacationists Washington, Aug. S .- (By A. P.) move against be printed.

'For every signboard burned I'll Mayflower, returning here with Presi gham combine

'For every signboard burned I'll Mayflower, returning here with Presi build ten," he said. "I'll make them dent Harding and his party from their three stories high so a sermon can be vacation in New Hampshire, was reput on them, and I'll protect them with ported seventy miles southeast of Cape big searchlights."

Henlopen, Delaware Bay.

DEATH OF FORMER SLAVE SADDENS MAIN LINE FAMILY

Mrs. Charles E. Hires Pays Touching Tribute to William Weaver, Old Negro Servitor, Who Marched With Sherman

self to Mr. Hires and myself. We shall would prove beneficial. A week age miss him very much."

This tribute was paid today by Mrs. This tribute was paid to the Charles E. Hires, of "Emwal," Haver-ford, to William Weaver, a Negro lib-save his life, but he failed to relamation, who had pottered about the Hires estate for the last ten years, taking care of a flock of chickens and from a motor trip through New Eng-land a few weeks ago Weaver, his hat hand, met them at the gate. "Tears streamed down his wrinkled face." Mrs. Hires said today, as she recounted the welcome the servant had given them. "He had missed us, and given them. "He had missed us, and we were almost as glad to see him as o'clock, at the Bryn Mawr Methodist Church.

"He was a faithful servant. Con-scientious, tireless and full of good-na-tured chuckles, he had endeared him-him out for a motor ride, believing it his condition became so serious we thought it advisable to have him re-moved to the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

"We never knew how old Weaver was, but physicians at the hospital said keeping the automobiles spotless and he was up in years. His early life was spent in slavery, and he never learned When Mr. and Mrs. Hires returned to read or write. He marched with

> "Weaver came to us from Princeton. N. J. He was married three times. His third wife survives." Funeral services for the former slave of the British delegation to the Wash-will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 in Glassboro Mystery "Murder Car" Gives Up Another Shred of Evidence That May Disclose Slaying in

New Jersey Woods A woman's black hairpins, about a and ax were found, to make certain dozen in all, were found toung concealed whether the body of a murder victim under a rug in the "murder car" dis- has been hidden there. covered last Thursday in the woods near,

Glassboro, N. J. THREATENING LETTERS

The color of the usirpins was to garded as significant because of the thick black hairs found on a blood-stained ax recovered near the automobile. Fine blonde bairs also were on the woods at a remote point from the woods at a remote point of the bidden machine was The color of the hairpins was re-

Dr. E. M. Duffield, Mayor of Glass-boro, found the hairpins today while making a second examination of the car.
Investigators have the body number of the automobile and are trying to of the automobile and are trying to made about the same time that the trace its owner in that way. The small branches used to hide the secreted car and shattered every window glass on metal plate bearing the number was were cut. The road is so infrequently the street between Broad and Fifteenth discovered in the mud near the aban- used and so inaccessible that the disdoned machine. It had been rolled up covery is considered important.

The additional tracks found continued

Chief of Police White, of Glassboro. and several assistants began digging today at points near where the car was hidden. They led to a point ab found in the hope of finding the license yards beyond and then stopped. tags which were torn off. It is believed the tags will be located in the mud. Mayor Duffield declared the county authorities should appropriate sufficient money to enable a thorough search of the woods and swamps surrounding the spot where the automobile

Mrs. Stosney, living in a house at the edge of the woods, less than a quarter of a mile from the abandoned au-tomobile, continues to nold to her SUNDAY BALL MEN | ALLIED STATESMEN

Woman Heard Scream,

Find More Auto Tracks

UNDER PEACE BOND CONFER ON SILESIA Magistrate Price Lets Irish Question of Re-enforcements to after 2 o'clock. Immediately wireless

By the Associated Press and later had a long conference. It was assumed that an attempt was made by morning's meeting of the conneil sian problem by awarding the districts of Pless and Rybnik to Poland, and it is said Lloyd George has expressed an-prehension that any other solution of the question would create in Upper Silesla a new Alsace-Lorraine.

draw the frontier between Poland and Germany along the Oder River, it being asserted by French experts that such an award to Poland would be in ine with the result of the plebiscite held

Italy represents what might be called middle ground, suggesting that the small portion of the mining district ountry, where the Poles showed a sultation this forenoon with Roland W.

Boyden, representative of the United who has represented the United States in various reparations matters. After ward Colonel Harvey called on Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the British Exchequer, who will represent Great Britain at the financial conference of the Powers, which meets tomorrow.

Premier Briand had a long conference this morning with Marshal Foch, Gen-eral Lerond, head of the interallied commission in Upper Silesia, and Louis Loucheur. French Minister of the

STABBED FROM BEHIND

and a few days ago returned from

Camp Mills: He was crossing the Tilghman street bridge when he beard no attention. As the person behind reached him, McGeever felt a stab wound and a knife was dug deep in his ribs. He was hurried to a hospital.

McGeever had been calling on friends footsteps behind him to which he devastated regions.

States, with the Reparations Commis frontier be placed east of the Oder River, but giving to Poland more than the southenstern quarter of clear majority in the plebiscite

Poper Silesla.

France, on the other hand, would

Giants and North Phillies Be Threshed Out First by Sign for Themselves Supreme Council to Silesia.

OBEY MAYOR, HE WARNS ITALY ON MIDDLE GROUND o'clock the Anyox received the Alaska's

Eighteen players of the Irish Giants and North Phillies, arrested yesterday baseball on Sunday, were today held in ment as to the partition of Upper Alaska. $300 bail each to keep the peace by Silesia. The outstanding figures in the onform to the Mayor's wishes and to play only for recreation on Sunday. cil was intensified by the presence of Magistrate Price permitted the men to George Harvey, the United States Am-Bureau testified the men were playing to Paris to act as American representammercialized baseball. One of the men arrested is said to have played this year on the varsity team of the University of Pennsylvania. The first subject on the program was team of the University of Pennsylvania. Although no collections had been nade for the game, police made the mercialized baseball. During the last night took dinner with Premier Briand two weeks a canvass was made of the followers of the two teams asking if they were willing to pay an increased dmission price during the week if the came on Sunday was played free Most of the fans were willing, man-agers of the teams say. The game was Council might be expedited. This started yesterday, but stopped by lice who saw posters telling of ensus and ordered the teams take the field under penalty of arrest

A crowd of 10,000 persons gathered to watch the game hooted and jeered police when they stopped the play. Hundreds of fans in automobiles followed the police patrols to the station game after they were warned by the police not to play, members of both ball been charged to the Sunday game of Lieutenant Barrett, when questioned had intended in advance to stop the game. He said there was no evidence of any attempt to collect me in behalf of any of the members of the

for the game yesterday or to pass hats

Arrest Sets Precedent The police interference in vesterday's game is the first time all the players have been arrested in any Sunday game played in the city and the first time arits have been made without direct evidence obtained by the police that During the week tickets are sold to sersons wishing to view the twilight games. Perry Reifsnyder, assistant manager, explained last night. Until two weeks ago the admission charged for the weekday games was thirty-five

DENIAL FOR LLOYD GEORGE

Continued on Page Two, Calumn Four

Statement He Won't Attend Arms Parley Declared Unfounded

Man Acquitted of Murder Attacked Paris, Aug. S. - (By A. P.) - State. at Night and Seriously Wounded good authority that Mr. Lloyd George, the British Prime Mini ter, had an-Allentown, Pa., Aug. 8. The entire Allentown police force is combing the nanced his decision not to go to the city in an effort to discover the idennited States to attend the disarmaent conference in Washington opening inflicted a serious stab wound on Willie McGeever, soldier and former puglist, Sovember 11 were given official denial his afternoon. The British delegation whose name figured preminently attending the allied Supreme Council trial for the murder of the Gorgodian girls just a year ago.

After being acquitted for this double here authorized the following announce-

"There is absolutely no truth in the murder, McGeever resumed soldiering report that Mr. Lloyd George has stated e will not go to the Washington con-The British Prime Minister's secretary added: "The point is that the British Cabinet has not yet considered the personnel

When you think of writing,

STRIKES REEF ON CALIFORNIA COAST 17 Bodies Recovered, 31 Miss-Careful investigation by Selah P. lark, Sheriff of Gloucester County

48 LOST AS SHIP

ing-166 Survivors Landed From Wrecked Steamship

CAMDEN COLLEGE BOY AMONG SURVIVORS

from where the hidden machine was found. Ellwood Watson, of Glassboro. By the Associated Press Eureka, Calif., Aug. 8 .- The steamhad seen those carlier in the day and had followed them to their end. The tracks were old and it is believed were ship Alaska, which struck on the rocks split in two by explosion of the boilers when the boat started to sink, suralong the narrow road and did not turn toward the spot where the machine was hidden. They led to a point about 100 of here and 107 to the sea by the explosion. The scene of the tragedy is forty miles south of here and 107 to the sea by the explosion. vivors said here today, and passengers scene of the tragedy is forty miles south of here and 197 miles north of San Francisco.

The steamship Anyox today brought 166 survivors of the wright to Eureka. Seventeen dead were also brought here. including three women and a child. There are thirty-one others missing and pelieved dead. Twelve of the dead bare identified.

The list of missing may be changed, or lists of passengers and crew aboard tve not been verified.

The full story of the sinking of the Alaska did not become known until sur-ivers had landed here. It was brought if the Alaska was proceeding toward in outcropping of the reef above water.

Five miles away the steamship Anyon of Vancouver, B. C. picked them up and, disregarding fog and danger of striking the same rocks as the Alaska, put on full speed to the rescue. At 9:30 stricken Alacka the latter had sunk.

Seek Survivors in Darkness Council met here at 3 o clock this after-Magistrate Price at the Twenty-second conference were Premiers Lloyd George, them and in their boat by the explosion midsh'us. The Anyex eruised about in the fog hope Interest in the meeting of the coununtil many other survivors had been picked up from the water, including siderable influence upon the several women and children.

gen their owns bail bond. Four min-ters and representatives of the Police bassador to Great Britain, who came From Erker, of Cornelius, Ore., who is in a hospital with her chest crushed the side of the sinking ship shile the boat was being lowered and was in the water from 9:30 last night until 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning before be-Prime Minister Lloyd George last ing picked up and taken aboard the

The rope of the lifeboat in which she them to adjust the conflicting positions DR. STONE'S BODY FOUND of their Covernments relative to Linner Widow of University Head on Way a brother identified it. to Banff to Plan Funeral not held, as was plunned, because Pre-mier Bonomi, did not arrive in time. Great Britain would solve the Si-

Calgary, Alta, Ang. 8.—(7by A. P.)
—The body of the late Dr. W. E.
Stone, president of Purdue University. has been recovered and is being taken to Bant it was announced in a message received lete last night.

Dr. Stone lest his life in an attempt to climb Mont Eanon on July 15. His close to the Wilson Administration said. widow, who was found alive after lying today they in machine gunnery.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT MACHINE-GUN REGIMENT TO BE FORMED

units of the separate infantry battalions, now in camp at Mt.

Gretna, into the Anti-Aircraft Machine-Gun Regiment of the Pennsylvania National Guard will be taken by National Guard officers. Adjutant General Frank D. Beary has received the necessary authority, and requisitions for equipment are being made. The battalions are part of the old Fourth Infantry, which has a long history in the Guard, including Porto Rican service.

Colonel Quinton T. Reitzel, the colonel of the new regiment, and Major H. H. Barnhart, just promoted, are former Legislators and veterans of Mexican porder and overseas service. Both specialized

CHINA ACCEPTS NOVEMBER 11 FOR ARMS PARLEY

fied the State Department, it was announced today, that November 11 will be agreeable as the date for the conference on ilmitations of armaments and discussion of Far Eastern questions. Official notification that the Japanese Government has accepted that date sitll is awaited.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 .- The Chinese Government has noti-

HARRISBURG, Aug. 8 .- Early steps for organization of

Saw Fiance Slain

MRS. M. C. OBENCHAIN Fiancee of J. B. Kennedy, who saw him murdered Friday night. She will be asked today to explain divergences between her testimony and statements of a man suspected of the crime

ADMIRAL SIMS PLEASED BY LETTER FROM BELFAST

Glad Men of Ulster Agree With His Views on Sinn Fein

Belfast, Aug. 8.—(By A. P.)—A etter from Rear Admiral William S. Sims acknowledging receipt of congrat- the cargo carried by the Pocomoke, ulations from the Belfast comrades of British auxiliary cruiser from the Ba-San Francisco in a denze fog when she struck a submerged ledge of the reef. fore the English-Speaking Union in at Atlantic City. The 1328 nottles This shock was almost instantly followed by another as the vessel struck ties of Sinn Fein sympathizers in the board and incased in burlap bags, just

> The letter, dated July 11, reads as "I can assure you it is a matter of great gratification to me to find that the loyal men of Ulster hold the same opinions as I do as to the English-speaking peoples. It may interest you to know that practically all the repu-table newspapers in the United States Before the Anyox could reach the are now in thorough approval of our ricken Alaska the letter had sunk. Fein sympathizers in the United States. has been brought about by a filled with survivors from the the American people in the form of the boat was partially filled showers of letters and telegrams to all swater and oily seem. The oil, concerned. It would almost seem as incident were about to be with see water and oily seum. The oil, concerned. It would almost seem as survivors said, had been thrown over thought the incident were about to be Magistrate Price at the Twenty-second conference were Fremers Lady Green, them and in their boat by the Alaska counts it will apparently have a construct and Hunting Park avenue station.

of Great Britain: Briand, of France, of the billers which wrecked the Alaska counts it will apparently have a considerable effect in the future. It is my transformed into an issue. At all siderable influence upon the relations

Track, Coroner Says

Benjamin Helmeold, of 2410 South Courad to an electric train of the West Jersey Grob. He sought two weeks post-Centioned on Page Five. Column the avenue. It is believed he was walking court today, but this was refused. on the railroad and did not hear the Counsel pleaded unfamiliarity with the The lady was taken to the Mergue templated immediate action, and and lay there until this morning, when case was one which did not require The victim is survived by a widow and three small children. He worked riveter at the New York Shipbuilding Company.

White May Run for Governor widow, who was found alive after lying today they understood definitely that for eight days on a mountain ledge, is also on her way to Banff. Details respective National Committee, would be a gardieg the discourse of Dr. Stone's candidate for Governor of Ohio next body were not contained in the incs. year Mr. White himself was out of the ents.

'EXTRA DRY' OWNER ALSO FINED $350 FOLLOWING ARREST

Ocean County Officials Tell of Getting Buried Rum in Raid on Farm

2 NEW YORK MEN TAKEN AND FREED IN $5000 BAIL

Toms River, Aug. 8 .- Andrew Grob. part owner of the Extra Dry Cafe, 1112 Atlantic avenec. Atlantic City, and a sember of the crew of the alleged rum unner. Pecemoke, was sentenced to hree months in jail and a fine of $350 today. He was arrested in connection with the seizure of 1328 bottles of Scotch and rye whisky buried near here. Grab, one of the most widely known of Atlantic City's hotel men, and a very flashy dresser, was disheveled and unkempt, after twenty-four hours in jail, when he was brought into court for a hearing today. He neded a shave and was without hat, collar, or tie. He was easily recognizable, however. as the Atlantic City sport, and admitted his identity when confronted with a man who had met him during the Ponoke investigation. The authorities believe the found buried near here was a part of fore the English-Speaking Union in at Atlantic City. The 1525 bottles London, in which he criticized activities of Sinn Fein sympathizers in the Loard and incased in burlap bags, just United States, was made public here as one of the members of the Pocomoke's crew related the bottles were today. bagged before being jettleoned from the schooner off Atlantic City. Arrested Near Barnega

Greb was arrested Saturday afteroorn on Max Unruh's farm, which 18 a mile from Barnegat Bay and balf a mile from aBrnegat Postoffice. With him were arrested a man who said he was John Maxwell and another who was John Maxwell and another described himself as George Walsh, both of New York. The police say they are Atlantic City men, however, though Maxwell denied the suggestion that he fog the Anyon came upon a remarkable expression of opinion by Maxwell denied the suggestion that he filled with survivors from the the American people in the form of was another man who has been named in connection with some of the Atlantie City rum-running. Both may be tried

Roth, Max Unruh, Julius Schinglehoff, Sr., Julius Schinglehoft, Jr., and Edwin Berg. The arrests were made under Ness act, which provides for tummary trial and punishment of liquor law violators in New Jersey. Judge W. Howard Jeffrey, of the Common Pleas Court, heard the case against Grob. Roth and Unruh were released yesterday under $5000 bail put up for them by State Senator David G. Joseph R. Cario, State Assemblyman much study by the prisoner's counsel. Jury Trial Denied case, but the Judge said the law con-

Grob's attorney moved when the proceedings began that his client be given a trial by jury, but this was denied by the Judge, within whose option it lies whether violators of the Van Ness moved to quash the proceedings on the constitutional. This, too, was denied. The testimony was brief. In tice of the Peace Arthur King, who was one of the passe which made the arrests, told be story of the rum schure. fermer New Jersey champion live-bird in one hand and a blank warrant in the He said he had gone to the Unruh fari with Under-Sucriff Brown, County Prosecutor Phones and W. C. McDounkl, a former New York police utenant, who is a summer resident at Harnegar. We had information that something was buried on the farm." the Continued on Page Five. Column Three

HERO IN RUNAWAY

Frank Kesler Rescues Two Women

From Frightened Horse Frank O. Kesler, a bystander, staged a thrilling rescue today, when he saved runaway horse at Broad street and South Penn Square.

The animal, attached to a laundry supply wagon, took fright at a flying scrap of paper and dashed west on South Penn Square into a crowd crossing Broad street. The elderly women, unable to escape, stood frightened and belpless in the path of the flying animal until Kesler ran from the sidewalk and brought him to a standstill.

Up Ag'in, Down Ag'in: A Midnight Tragedy

windows

11 P. M .- Rain by the bucketful. 11:10-Rain ceases, room hot, up go the windows. 14:20-Rain by the bucketful, driving in: down go the windows, 11:32-Rain ceases, up go the 11:48-Rain by the bucketful, down go the windows.

12 Midnight-Itain ceases, up go

12:15 A. M. Rain by the bucketful—aw, what's the use; let it come in. Up stay the windows.

living near the scene of the Gorgodian